

MULTIPLIER EVENT 2 / AGENDA

Audio Description teaching and training

27th September 2017

Venue: Faculty of English, Collegium Novum, al. Niepodległości 4, Poznań, Poland

PROGRAMME

8:30-9:00 am Registration, networking opportunity

Session 1: ADLAB PRO PROJECT

9:00-9:10 am Introduction to the strategic partnership and to the project
Elisa Perego - University of Trieste

9:10-9:40 am Presentation of IO1 results. A snapshot of AD teaching and training practices
Iwona Mazur and Agnieszka Chmiel - Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan

9:40-10:00 am Presentation of IO2 results
Elisa Perego - University of Trieste

Session 2: Teaching and training

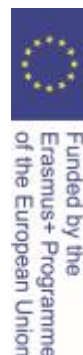

10:00-10:15 am Audio description as narration. Using film analysis and film perception analysis in drafting and teaching AD
Izabela Kuentler - Napisy-Audiodeskrypcja

10:15-10:30 am How to turn a journalist into an audio describer
Justyna Mańkowska, Mariusz Trzeciakiewicz - Fundacja Katarynka

10:30-10:45 am Teaching audio description of works of art in the academia – the main problems and issues
Aneta Pawłowska, Adam Drozdowski - Department of Art History, University of Łódź

10:45-11:15 am Q&A

1

- 11:15-11:45 am Coffee break and networking
- 11:45-12:45 am Hands-on session with learning activities
- Room description and drawing
Aline Remael - University of Antwerp
Anna Jankowska - Jagiellonian University, Autonomous University of Barcelona
 - Can you create an illusion? (A clip from The Killing)
Shak Yousaf - SDI Media
 - Guiding
Louise Fryer - Utopian Voices
- 12:45-13:30 pm Round table on training AD experts
(with participation of AD end users and their organisations)
- 13:30 pm Concluding session (followed by lunch and networking)

USEFUL INFORMATION

Getting to Collegium Novum

The event will take place in Collegium Novum (al. Niepodległości 4, 61-874 Poznań) in room C1 (groundfloor, building C). You can use this website to plan your route if you are going to use public transport to get around the city. Disabled access to Collegium Novum is from Kościuszki street.

Getting to Poznań